ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The 2026 Bags of Fun Golf Classic is a charity golf tournament held at Colorado Golf Club's Championship Course in Parker, CO, benefiting Bags of Fun, a nonprofit that provides activity bags to children with serious illnesses.

THE COURSE

Colorado Golf Club

Parker, CO · Bill Coore/Ben Crenshaw, 2007

A private course in Parker designed by Bill Coore and Ben Crenshaw on 1,700 acres of ponderosa-dotted foothills southeast of Denver. Known for naturalistic bunkering, generous fairways, and contoured greens that reward strategic positioning. Widely regarded as one of Colorado's premier modern private clubs.

THE CAUSE

The Gabby Krause Foundation

A Colorado-based nonprofit founded in 2004 in memory of six-year-old Gabby Krause, who died of brain cancer. Known for its Bags of Fun program, which delivers custom-built backpacks of toys and activities to pediatric patients undergoing treatment for cancer, kidney dialysis, and organ transplants.
