ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

A single-day, scramble-style charity golf tournament benefiting the Kawasaki Kids Foundation, supporting families affected by Kawasaki disease with a full day of fun, food, and community.

THE COURSE

Greeley Country Club

Greeley, CO · Maxwell/Bendelow, 1920

A historic private parkland course in Greeley with origins dating to 1920. The original nine holes were laid out by Tom Bendelow; J. Press Maxwell redesigned the existing holes and added the back nine in 1962. Known for small greens, mature trees, and water and out-of-bounds hazards that demand shot accuracy.

THE CAUSE

Kawasaki Kids Foundation

A Colorado-based nonprofit founded to raise awareness of Kawasaki Disease, a rare childhood illness that causes inflammation of blood vessels. Funds research and supports families of children diagnosed with Kawasaki Disease.
