ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The Swing for the Cure Charity Golf Tournament is hosted by the MG2 Foundation to benefit Fred Hutch Cancer Center. The event features a four-person scramble format with 144 golfers, sponsors, and a full day of activities including dinner, live auction, and raise-the-paddle fundraising.

THE COURSE

The Club at Snoqualmie Ridge

Snoqualmie, WA · Private Club

A semi-private golf club in Snoqualmie, Washington, set in the foothills of the Cascade Range east of Seattle. The semi-private model allows both member and public tee-time access, making it a viable venue for charity tournament play. The Pacific Northwest setting brings the region's characteristic wooded terrain and variable weather.

THE CAUSE

Fred Hutch Cancer Center

A leading cancer research and treatment center dedicated to eliminating cancer and related diseases through scientific discovery, clinical care, and patient support.
