ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

A local military charity golf event held at The Club at Pradera in Parker, CO, raising funds for veterans and their families through golf, an opening ceremony, and a reception and auction.

THE COURSE

The Club at Pradera

Parker, CO · James J. Engh, 2004

A Jim Engh-designed private club in Parker, often described as Engh's home course. Known for an Irish links-influenced style with pot bunkers, native roughs, and a mix of punchbowl, plateau, and ground-level greens across rolling Douglas County terrain. The course offers seven sets of tees and is the centerpiece of the Pradera master-planned community.

THE CAUSE

Veteran service organizations and Tee It Up for the Troops programs including REUNION

Funds raised at this event benefit Tee It Up for the Troops, a national 501(c)(3) that supports veteran service organizations and programs serving service members, veterans, and their families. The REUNION program reconnects veterans through outdoor experiences.
