ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The Weld Trust Golf Classic is an annual charity golf tournament benefiting Bright Futures, a Weld County workforce initiative that provides tuition assistance to empower students and strengthen the local community.

THE COURSE

Greeley Country Club

Greeley, CO · Maxwell/Bendelow, 1920

A historic private parkland course in Greeley with origins dating to 1920. The original nine holes were laid out by Tom Bendelow; J. Press Maxwell redesigned the existing holes and added the back nine in 1962. Known for small greens, mature trees, and water and out-of-bounds hazards that demand shot accuracy.

THE CAUSE

Bright Futures – a Weld County workforce initiative

A Weld County workforce initiative administered through The Weld Trust. Provides scholarships and post-secondary funding to Weld County high school graduates pursuing higher education, vocational training, or workforce credentials.
